

An office for advocacy and accountability in Aboriginal affairs – Submission

Submission from: Warmun Community

Date Received: 08/10/2018

---

At the Warmun Council meeting on 3 October 2018, Council confirmed that there should be a voice for small communities and a place where they can go higher with things if they are not getting the support they need or expected.

They would like this added to the consultation outcomes.